Important Notes

1. Non-resident declarations are subject to inspection by the Revenue Commissioners and it is a criminal offence to make a false declaration. This Application Form including the non-resident declaration may therefore also be disclosed to the Irish Revenue Commissioners.
2. To be valid, the Application Form (incorporating the declaration required by the Revenue Commissioners) must be signed by the applicant. Where there is more than one applicant, each person must sign. If the applicant is a company, it must be signed by the company secretary or another authorised officer.
3. If the Application Form (incorporating the declaration required by the Revenue Commissioners) is signed under power of attorney, a copy of the power of attorney must be furnished in support of the signature.

4. Residence – Individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he:

- (a) spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year; or
- (b) has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Up to 31 December 2024, presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at the end of the day (midnight). From 1 January 2025, presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Ordinary Residence – Individual

The term “ordinary residence” as distinct from “residence” relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity.

An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2024 and departs from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year in 2027.

Residence – Company

A company which has its central management and control in Ireland (the State) is resident in the State irrespective of where it is incorporated. A company which does not have its central management and control in Ireland but which is incorporated in the State is resident in the State except where:

- the company or a related company carries on a trade in the State, and either the company is ultimately controlled by persons resident in EU Member States or countries with which the Republic of Ireland has a double taxation treaty, or the company or a related company are quoted companies on a recognised Stock Exchange in the EU or in a tax treaty country.

- the company is regarded as not resident in the State under a double taxation treaty between the Republic of Ireland and another country.

It should be noted that the determination of a company's residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and declarants are referred to the specific legislative provisions which are contained in section 23A Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997.

5. “Intermediary” means a person who:
 - (a) carries on a business which consists of, or includes, the receipt of payments from an investment undertaking resident in the State on behalf of other persons, or
 - (b) hold units in an investment undertaking on behalf of other persons.
6. A corporation should affix its common seal and have it countersigned by persons authorised to countersign the seal or otherwise should execute under the hand of a duly authorised official or officials who should state his/their representative capacity. A certified copy (certified by a director or secretary of the company) of the resolution or other authority authorising one or more signatories should be provided with the Application Form.
