- (b) I have attained the legal age required by the laws of the state under which the assets were gifted or transferred to me;
- (c) No designation was made by the donor that requires termination of custodianship for my assets be delayed until I reach a later age;
- (d) I have not already received equivalent gifts or transfers of money from the custodian that would reduce the value of the assets due to me in the custodial account(s);
- (e) I am not aware of any competing claims from the custodian or a successor custodian that would prevent me from receiving the assets in the custodial account(s);
- (f) The custodian or successor custodian has declined to release the assets to me as required by applicable state law;

(You must strike out the preceding clause if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding.) (3) I am a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien.

I understand that if I do not supply a TIN or certify I am not subject to backup withholding will apply to my reportable dividends or interest and/or redemptions and my account may be closed. If I am not a U.S. citizen or resident alien, I understand that I must also supply a completed Form W-8BEN. I also understand that the Internal Revenue Service does not require my consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

This form must be completed and will be verified as required by the USA PATRIOT Act. Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that allows us to identify you. This information will be verified to ensure the identity of all individuals opening a mutual fund account.
